

Curriculum Vitae

EHMEID KHALIFA

Personal Data & Contact

Nationality: Libyan
Address: Tripoli/ Libya
ehmeid@yahoo.com

Qualifications

2010-2011: Birmingham City University, Faculty of Health, Birmingham, UK, (Master of Science (MSc) in Health and Social Care with Distinction Award Classification).

1999-2007: University of Tripoli, Faculty of Medicine, Tripoli, Libya, MBBS (Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery).

Related Work Employment

2015 - Up to now; Lecturer in the Faculty of Medicine/ University of Tripoli in Community & Family Medicine Dept.

Responsibilities: Lecture planning, preparation and research. Teach 4th year medical students in a variety settings from small group tutorials to large lectures. The lectures are about health education, communications skills with patients, infectious diseases (Tuberculosis & HIV), and SPSS uses in statistical analysis. In addition to, set and mark the assignments and researches proposals.

Previous Work Employment

2008 - 2015: National Centre for Diseases Control; Tripoli, Libya. General physician (GP) in Tuberculosis (TB) Unit, and then became a specialist of TB in the same Unit after I had MSc degree.

Part Time Position

15th to 28th August 2021: as a facilitator in Training Course in Sabha in collaboration with WHO (the course was about TB drug resistant for group of medical doctors in the south region of Libya).

1st of October 2020 to 31st of January 2021: as a consultant in Covid-19 Emergency Response Centre (CERC) in Tripoli. By a free line (1448) where we could receive phone calls from people in order to detect, trace, and provide information to suspected COVID-19 patients in Libya.

Additional Information

English Language: Fluent written and spoken English.

Computer Knowledge: Arabic & English Touch Typing in Word. Experienced user of Microsoft Products e.g., Word, Excel, & Power Point. Experienced user of SPSS software in statistical analysis.

Interest/ Hobbies

Reading, travelling, & watching TV.